For Immediate Release

The Mesa County Coroner's Office has received numerous requests for information regarding the death of a substitute teacher who died while on the job at Clifton Elementary School on Monday, December 12, 2011. We generally do not do Media Releases on natural deaths, but this one was of particular interest.

The teacher's name was William Edwards, 71-years old from Loma, Colorado. Mr. Edward's Manner of Death has been ruled Natural. No suspicious circumstances surrounded this case.

The law enforcement agency overseeing this investigation is Mesa County Sheriff's Office. Please contact them for any further details regarding this case.
